

five talents

Join us for our virtual breakfast event with a special guest: Ed Perry, co-founder and CEO of COOK!

Ed passionately believes in the positive role business can play in society and will speak about how that works within COOK and the lessons we can all learn from his story.

Please join us on Zoom for breakfast on Friday 10th December from 8.00am to 9.00am to hear Ed's story and learn more about his connection to eastern Africa! There will be plenty of time for live Q&A with Ed, and of course catching up with all the latest news from Five Talents.

Fill in this form on our website by 3rd December to reserve your place.

Ed Perry co-founded COOK in 1997. Today it has grown to include over 1,600 team members across the UK and has sales of almost 100 million.

COOK has won 50 Great Taste Awards and in 2021, COOK was ranked #1 in the Best Food & Drink Companies to Work For. Ed truly understands what it takes to be an entrepreneur and business leader.

Five Talents works in some of the most financially disadvantaged communities in eastern Africa, by providing literacy, numeracy and business skills training. Through our network of partners, Five Talents also teaches people how to save together as a community, and how to use savings to offer micro-loans to members so they can start or grow small businesses. So far, Five Talents has supported over 260,000 entrepreneurs.

Fill in this form on our website by 3rd December to reserve your place.