

five talents

We're delighted to invite you to join us for evening drinks on Thursday 11th November from 6.00pm to 8.00pm at Southwark Cathedral in the Garry Weston Library.

Special guests Rt Revd Dr Josiah Idowu-Fearon, Secretary of the Anglican Communion & Dr Althea-Maria Rivas, from SOAS University of London, will join us to discuss building bridges among diverse communities.

The Very Revd. Andrew Nunn, Dean of Southwark, will also lead a fascinating guided tour around the beautiful Cathedral. There will also be delicious refreshments and a chance to catch up with the Five Talents team.

Fill in this form on our website by 4th November to reserve your place.

Dr Idowu-Fearon has acted as Secretary General of the Anglican Communion since 2015. He holds an MA in Islamic Theology and was previously Archbishop of the Province of Kaduna, in the Muslim north of Nigeria, where he set up a Centre for Islamic Studies. He is widely recognised for his work in building bridges both across the Anglican Communion and between inter-faith communities.

Dr Althea-Maria Rivas is MSc Humanitarian Action Programme Convenor at SOAS University of London. Prior to joining the Department of Development Studies at SOAS, Dr Rivas worked in humanitarian assistance, gender and development and governance within various INGOs. Her current research focuses on intersectionality, and the racialised and gendered nature of aid, post-conflict reconstruction and social justice.

Fill in this form on our website by 4th November to reserve your place.